The mission of the Lutheran Women’s Missionary League is to assist each woman of The Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod in affirming her relationship with the Triune God so that she is enabled to use her gifts in ministry to the world.

10 Top Reasons to go to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania for the 35th LWML Convention June 27-30, 2013

1. Come together to worship with your sisters and brothers in Christ.
2. Hear God’s Word as shared with us by Rev. Dien Ashley Taylor at the opening worship service and by Rev. Victor Belton at the closing worship service.
4. Laugh with humorist Elaine Bickel.
5. Join in the Mission in Motion Walk and the LWML Neighborhood Block Party.
6. Sing God’s praises with Song Leader Dr. Dina Vendetti.
7. Listen and be inspired by keynote speaker Dr. LuJuana Butts and inspirational speaker Mia Koehne.
8. Learn what’s happening in the mission field from our Mites in Action speakers.
9. Participate in the “Servant Connections” and share your “Gifts from the Heart.”
10. Renew friendships and make new friends.
Greetings, Sisters in Christ!

Here are some things happening in our LWML district:

PING “On the day I called, you answered me; my strength of soul you increased” (Ps. 138:3)—PING theme passage.

We’re back—and we’re excited about sharing lots of things we learned at PING training in St. Louis, Mo., in mid-October. Lynn Lahd, Mary Kuhnau and I attended “Inspiration 2012,” where we learned ways to be Prepared, Inspired, Nourished, and ready to Go to share the heart of the LWML. Training in our district will take place next fall. Watch for locations and dates this coming summer.

Pittsburgh Convention. Are you making plans to attend the LWML Convention in Pittsburgh this summer (June 27-30)? Would you like to travel by bus with others in our district? Look for forms in this newsletter and at the district website.

LWML MN North Convention in 2014. The board of directors has begun planning for our next district convention. It will be held at the St. Cloud River’s Edge Convention Center, St. Cloud, Minn., from June 23-25. Save the date!

My prayer for you is that you continue to grow in God’s Word, serve Him daily, and pray continually.

JoNette Brogaard
President

Changing the pattern of mite giving

LWML is trying another approach to mite giving. Making a “big push” out of panic at the end of each biennium to meet the Mission Goal seems to have developed into a pattern.

Do you grow weary of hearing about how far we’re behind the budget and then, out of guilt, dig a little deeper in your own pocket or frantically try to raise funds at the last minute? This is “Law giving” and it becomes something we do “just to meet a budget.” Is that the right purpose for giving? So let’s say that, perhaps, at the end of the biennium the Mission Goal is met. Will the following years repeat the same pattern? So you get the picture? Law giving is short term.

Can LWML break the pattern? Certainly! Let’s learn and share some Christian, Bible based lessons on stewardship. During the next several months, the Treasured News (a newsletter from the LWML Treasurer) will be featuring articles on the Seven T’s of Stewardship: Time, Talent, Treasurer, Testimony, Touch, Tissue, Trash.

Are you ready to “buy in” and do your part in spreading this information as it’s shared with you from our LWML district? The new pattern will develop as you share this information with your society and church members. It would be pleasing to hear a lot of chatter about stewardship among the LWML members!

Thank you for doing your part to make this happen. God will bless your efforts.

Mark your calendar!

LWML Retreat
August 9-11, 2013
at Lutheran Island Camp

Theme:
“In the beginning, God created ...”

Brian Young, Director of Creation Instruction Association, will be our speaker. He is an internationally known speaker and author who uses the Bible as the foundation for science and education.

Messiah Minnesota Minutemen will be entertaining us with original skits.

Registration forms will be available in the spring issue of the Minnesota Northern Light.
Gifts from the Heart

“And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose” (Romans 8:28 ESV).

My daughter, three children and a dog moved into our home with us in October. My husband and I have been living alone for years. This was quite a change in our lives. At first it was very chaotic, but as routines were established and boundaries were set, everything went very smoothly. Now I can say this is truly a blessing. Talk about having a purpose in life. I now have three of my grandchildren living under my roof observing me every moment. It is my prayer each morning that the Lord be with me as I try to set a good example in word and deed, leading them to a closer relationship with Jesus Christ as their Savior and Friend.

Human care starts in our home – but then it branches out to others. Especially in these winter months, let us remember to reach out to people who can’t get outside. Visit the home-bound -- those in nursing homes, assisted living and hospitals. Make it your mission to fulfill their earthly needs in the same measure that God provides for you. Bring them church bulletins and Portals of Prayer. Share the love of Jesus with them through word and actions.

If you know of someone on active duty in the military, remember them in your prayers. Remember their families with prayers, also. You could help by sending them telephone cards, greeting cards and letters.

Start collecting Gifts from the Heart for the 2013 LWML Convention. These gifts will be given to agencies in the Pittsburgh area. Bring your gifts with you when you register at the convention center, or arrange to send the gifts with someone you know is attending the convention. (No money will be accepted for Gifts from the Heart at the convention.) Here are suggested items to donate:

- Quilts/Blankets (all sizes received – baby and children included).
- Wipes & disposable diapers (sizes preemie, newborn, 3 and 4).

Pack the following kit items in a clear plastic zip lock bag and in original packaging:

- Baby Kits: Receiving blankets; sleepers (preemie/newborn); onesies (preemie/newborn); outfits (preemie/newborn); Children’s Christian storybook.
- Men’s Kits: Men’s boxers (L - XXXL); Men’s T-shirts (L - XXL); Men’s socks; Christian Tract or Bible verse.
- Bath Kits: Bath towel and washcloth; full-size toothpaste and toothbrush; deodorant for women or men; bath/bar soap; Christian Tract or Bible verse.
- Devotional Kits: Bible (NIV or ESV preferred); devotional; journal and pen.

LWML 2013 Prayer Service released

The goal of this prayer service, titled “Joyful, Joyful,” is to provide opportunities for adoration, confession, thanksgiving, and supplication to our gracious God for the joys and needs of His people, with the sure faith that He will answer according to His will. Participants will grow in their faith in Jesus Christ their Savior, as they hear, read, and believe His Word; and sing, praise, and pray to the Lord.

The 2013 Prayer Service was authored by the Rev. Larry A Miller, who served as Pastoral Counselor for the LWML, as well as in the district and zone counselor positions. Pastor Miller has authored the children’s book, Who Loves You Best, and other LWML resources. One of his missions is to help God’s people to be “joyful, joyful” in living the Christian life!

This prayer service is available for free download on the LWML website www.lwml.org/events.
PING!

Recently I was blessed to be one of three Minnesota North District board members who went to St. Louis for leadership training called PING. What does PING stand for?

P – Pursue
I – Invest
N – Nurture
G – Go

Mary Kuhnau
Christian Life
Chairman

We had Bible studies, inspirational speakers and skits about
1. Pursuing others to become active in LWML,
2. Investing time with them so they feel qualified to be leaders,
3. Nurturing them in the Word and by providing resources, and
4. Going – doing these things in our district.

We are preparing training sessions for our district next fall. Watch for more information. The training is not only for present leaders, but future leaders.

Resources for the Lenten and Easter seasons are available:

• All Eyes on the Cross – Stand at the foot of the cross and experience anew the depth of God’s love for us. This Lenten prayer devotion is based on the seven last words of Christ from the cross.

• Easter Is ... – A joyful devotion. Four Bible readings and suggestions for visual aids

• Expect Victory – We’re reminded to expect victory over sin death and the power of Satan in this devotional. It assigns Bible verses and phrases to each letter of the word “victory.” Hymn suggestions and prayer are included for a concise opening or closing devotion.

• Hidden Treasures – In devotion, encouraging messages are “hidden” in 10 Easter eggs. Open each egg and read the Good News. You will need plastic Easter eggs and other items as listed.

• His Care Helps Us Care – This conversational drama uses the cross as a visual and emphasizes how our Lord’s great care and love for us allows us to care for others.

Bible studies available:

• All Things through Christ – This interactive Bible study is divided into three parts: People Who Did All Things (Biblical examples); I Can Have Much of Great Value through Christ; and I Can Do All Things through Christ. This study would be useful in any group setting and encourages sharing between participants.

• Go Tell It! A Bible study on witnessing – This Bible study will guide your group through ways to witness to others using the Word of God. Personal experience and sample situations.

• Hark, the Voice of Jesus Calling – Good for one large group or several small ones. This study of the Biblical references of the familiar mission hymn includes some thought-provoking questions.

• Proclaim the Redeemer – Written for six, one-hour sessions. This insightful Bible study examines how our attitudes and behavior reflect what we “proclaim.”

The resources listed above are available to you. They are in our District Lending Library. If you wish to use them, please contact me at (320) 834-2135, or email christianlife@lwmlmnn.org. In lieu of paying postage, I ask that you make a contribution to your Mite Box.

LWML is pleased to offer a new Bible study written by LWML Pastoral Counselor, Rev. Kris Whitby. In the Bible study, At Table with Jesus, Rev. Whitby takes a closer look at some of the significant things that happened during mealtimes in Jesus’ earthly life. This study invites participants to journey into the Scriptures and take a seat around the meal table where Jesus dines. Is Jesus talking to those with whom He is eating, or might He be talking to those gathered outside the doorway? Could He be talking to people 2,000 years later?

This study can be ordered for $6.50 as a download from Shop LWML or as a printed copy from the LWML office.
#8 Construct Classroom Building, Yambio, South Sudan- $10,000

Students attend the local Evangelical Lutheran Church Sudan (ELCS), where they are instructed in the Word and Lutheran doctrine. They then share this knowledge with their friends and relatives. There are at present over 200 students enrolled. The costs have gone up since South Sudan became an independent nation. Since the people are very poor and cannot build on their own, the needs are great. Education is vital in this part of the world. These children are the future of the Lutheran Church in South Sudan.

#10 Anyuak Ministry, Sauk Rapids, MN - $5,000

This ministry is three years old and is already bearing fruit. On December 25, 2011, there were over 250 Anyuak gathered to celebrate the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ. The Anyuak people are recent immigrants from Sudan and Ethiopia. John Bakou, who is a seminary student, is now serving as Vicar and Evangelist. He is on staff at Trinity Lutheran Church and serves three days per week. These funds would be used to start a Sunday school and to recruit and train elders to assist John Bakou.

Mission Grant resources available

The LWML website offers many mission grant support items for free download at www.lwml.org/missions/mission-grants.php.

- Colorful Mission Power Poster—one for each of the 19 mission grants are perfect for bulletin boards. Highlight one or more of the grants still waiting for funds.
- Download and print the monthly Devotion, or Prayer Guide and Story—ready for personal use or in a group setting. The Prayer Guide and Story are also available in a large print version. This includes suggestions for daily mite offerings for Mite Boxes.
- Submit the Bulletin Byte for publication in your church bulletin.

2012-2014 Mission Goal Status

The Mission Goal status as of December 31, 2012, was not available at press-time. For an updated balance of the mission grants, go to www.lwmlmnn.org/mggoals.html. Thank you!

Applications sought

The 2012–2013 academic year is at its mid-point. The recipients of this year’s scholarship awards have been working hard to learn and grow in their chosen career fields. I hope that each of you has been lifting them up in prayer before our Heavenly Father, that they might grow in their faith as well as knowledge of their subjects.

I was reminded recently that it is almost time to submit scholarship applications for the 2013–2014 school year. The Scholarship Application can be downloaded from our website, www.lwmlmnn.org, and needs to be submitted by May 15, 2013. Please encourage all students seeking careers in church work to start early in getting their applications in order. Every year there are one or two who like to test the postal system for speed. One year I even had an application hand delivered at my home after midnight. It is always exciting to read the essays and the references that accompany these applications.

Did you know that since the first LWML Minnesota North Convention in 1964, over $750,000 has been awarded in scholarships to men and women seeking careers in church work? And this is just a portion of the mites given to expand God’s kingdom – Praise be to God!

I leave you with this thought from 1 Timothy 4:10, “For to this end we toil and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe.”

What records to send?

I recently attended an LWML Archival-Historian Conference in St Louis. I was richly blessed with information and fellowship with other historians throughout the United States. It was greatly impressed upon me how important each job we do is so very important for the whole of LWML. One of the many things we worked on was a historical display for the Pittsburgh Convention in June. We pillaged through boxes of different districts. I can tell you first hand there was not one position that was not scanned for information. Thanks go to each one of you for the work you do for LWML. You are appreciated. We all make the total picture.

There has been some confusion on what to send the District Historian from your zone. If your zone has a historian, then the zone historian will send an end of the year summary of activities the zone has done the last year. This yearly summary should be sent to the District Historian after the zone fall workshop. The District Historian sends a biennium report to St. Louis and needs the zone reports to make an accurate report to the LWML.

However, if the zone does not have a historian, the zone secretary will send the minutes from each zone workshop two times a year to the District Historian.

Each society should have a historian. Her responsibilities on what she saves reflect her society only. She should write a short history of her society and keep it in her society’s files. Each society historian’s archives should reflect her society only. Zone and district materials should be passed onto the reflective groups. If you have questions, please call or email me according to the district website, historian@lwmlmnn.org.

Please remember to forward records of disbanded societies to the archives, where they will be kept in a safe environment. The archives will also accept other old records if a local society does not have a suitable place to store them.
"Arise! Shine! Your Light has Come ..."
(Isaiah 60:1 NIV).

May the joy you found in our newborn Savior and the blessings you receive continue throughout the New Year.

Why am I using this convention verse again? I found joy in this Old Testament chapter and was pleased to find Christmas stationery and cards with these words. I am hoping that it still has meaning to you also.

A reminder that our legal name needs to be listed as “Lutheran Women’s Missionary League Minnesota North District Name of Region Name of Society Name of Church City/Township” (no commas).

To help societies and zones clarify questions about when the legal name needs to be updated on documents, I offer the following:

- Bank information needs to be done immediately! Include the legal name of the zone or society, EIN (employer identification number), city and zip code. Also, it’s a good idea to have a second person listed who can sign checks in the event the treasurer is not available.
- Checkbook is the same information as bank information (get as much on the check as possible). This can wait until you need to order new checks.
- Bylaws need to be updated as soon as possible, (when it’s time to review and update your bylaws).
- The bylaws cover page should be updated as soon as possible. Just put the information on a page, then send one to the Structure Committee Chairman to attach to the bylaws on file. Also attach one to your copy of your bylaws.

"But everything should be done in a fitting and orderly way" (1 Corinthians 14:40 NIV). To help us accomplish this, I have received an addendum to the Official Stylebook of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, which the Lutheran Women’s Missionary League follows. It can be found on the LWML website. I am going to mention a couple of areas for all to use when writing bylaws, meeting minutes and news articles.

Capitalization: Capitalize district, zone, region, society, and committee only when it is part of a proper name. Always capitalize LWML committee and department names. For example:
- “The LWML Minnesota North District hosted the event.”
- “Doris attended the district convention.”
- “The Structure Committee will meet in May.”
- “Each committee shall submit an article.”

Punctuation: Use one space between sentences and after colons.

- Use one space on each side of an ellipsis ( ... ) and an em dash ( – ).

Give away the Quarterly!

If you love reading the Lutheran Woman's Quarterly, why not give it away? Think about it. Pray about it. Who needs a word of encouragement and the Gospel message in her life right now?

Instead of buying that person a store-bought card, save yourself the expense of purchasing the card, plus the cost of postage and gas, and give away your Quarterly! Put your own message within. It could be as simple as this: “I was reading this magazine and thought you would enjoy it too.”

Thank you for sharing a copy of the Quarterly with someone else!

Prayer & Praise Mite Calendar

The Prayer and Praise Mite Calendars are a fun way to increase your Mite Box giving. Included on the calendar are daily prayer petitions to support the LWML and our 2012-2014 mission grants. These calendars are available on the district website under the “Publications” tab.
I love this quote from Charles Dickens, “I will hold Christmas in my heart, and try and keep it all year through.” You might ask, “Why would someone want to keep Christmas in their heart all year long?” We received the greatest gift ever given to mankind one special evening long ago. At Christmas we celebrate the birth of Jesus, God’s only son, the Savior of the world. Why wouldn’t you want to keep that joy, happiness, and good news in your heart all year? Why wouldn’t you want to share that joy, happiness, good news with everyone?

As members and leaders in the LWML, just how can we share that joy, happiness, and good news? How can we prepare and equip ourselves to share that precious gift that was given to the world? We can prepare our hearts and minds by our daily devotions and by being in the Word at our meetings, at our church services and Bible studies. We can pray and ask that the Holy Spirit be with us as we Serve our Lord with Gladness.

We also need to actually step out in faith and use the many different gifts we have been given by our Lord. Check out Gifted for Service, a resource available for free on the LWML website under the “Resources” tab.

Perhaps one of your gifts is that of a servant leader. Do you have a natural feeling that you want to serve others? Do you want to serve others while leading? Are you more willing to be a servant yourself? Do you often ask, “How can I help?” or “Who can I serve?” If you said YES to any of those questions, you have some of the characteristics of a servant leader and your Lord has work for you to do. Be open and ready to step into the many opportunities our Lord presents to you. You just need to look around and see them.

The LWML offers each of us many opportunities to use our own unique gifts to serve our Lord. Take advantage of them. Use the district and national websites for resources. Attend your society meetings, zone rallies and workshops, regional rallies, district conventions, special workshops, and the national convention.

Come remember that wonderful feeling of Christmas joy and love and be “Quenched by the Water” at the LWML convention June 27-30, 2013, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. You can celebrate that Wonderful Christmas Gift, Jesus, with thousands of your sisters. You will come away being re-ignited with enthusiasm and lots of fantastic ideas for sharing the Gospel and serving your Lord.

LWML Block Party!

Enjoy our first ever “LWML Neighborhood Block Party,” 7:00-9:00 p.m., Friday, June 28, at the 35th Biennial Convention in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. After an eventful day of convention business, dinner, and the Mission in Motion Walk, come as you are with family and friends for a relaxing evening.

Strolling musicians will entertain with song and dance as you participate in interactive exhibits designed to inform and entertain. Learn more about the history of LWML through the decades. Meet Past Presidents, Heart to Heart Sisters, Young Women Representatives, and your LWML sisters.

Come celebrate 70 years of Lutheran Women in Mission!
A three-fold cord

“Again, if two lie together, they keep warm, but how can one keep warm alone? And though a man might prevail against one who is alone, two will withstand him—a threefold cord is not quickly broken” (Ecclesiastes 4:11-12).

Recent events in my life have reinforced the importance of having other Christians for prayer and compassion support.

Many times this verse from Ecclesiastes is used as a wedding reading, but it can also apply to having other important people in your life. One cord represents God, one cord yourself, and the third another person in your life. From a scientific standpoint, three cords are stronger, because when you have three cords of equivalent diameter, and the three are wound together, they naturally entwine and touch each other. The friction between the cords offers strength for the rope. Adding a fourth cord will give you more strength, but not as much proportionately as going from two to three.

While we can have a wonderful relationship on a one to one level with God, adding another person changes the dynamic. “For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them” (Matthew 18:20). You and God need someone else to share the good news with. God already knows it and wants us to pass it on to everyone. Prayer becomes more enriching when you ask for others.

The strength of our societies and guilds comes from adding additional strings (people) to the cord. The work of the LWML cannot and should not be done by only one or two people. As each person joins, the society becomes stronger. Each person brings unique gifts to the group, thus strengthening the group and allowing for more ways to “Serve the Lord with Gladness.”

Our societies need to be made up of many different kinds of people. “But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single member, where would the body be? As it is, there are many parts, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you,” nor again the head to the feet, “I have no need of you.” On the contrary, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, and on those parts of the body that we think less honorable we bestow the greater honor, and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty …” (1 Corinthians 12:18-23).

Children, whose parents or other adults are attending the 2013 convention, may attend one of four age group activities:

- Nursery and Child Care (6 months - 4 years)
- Primary (ages 5-8)
- Intermediate Program (ages 9-12)
- High School Program (ages 13-17)

All child/youth activities will be held Friday, June 28, and Saturday, June 29, from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

The registration form is in the Winter 2012 edition of the Lutheran Woman’s Quarterly, or online at www.lwml.org/conventions/2013-pittsburgh under the headline “Convention Information and Downloads” and “Special Convention Insert.”
From LWML President Kay Kreklau

In October 2011, the LWML reached a milestone of $100 million in mites! The donations that have been given by faithful women and men in their Mite Boxes have been used to benefit many grant recipients through the years. There is more work to be done. How can you help?

- Invite, mentor, and nurture one new relationship with a fellow sister in Christ. Tell her your LWML story and how it is connected to the Savior’s story—HIS story!
- Be in the Word daily. Be nurtured by the Spirit as you read God’s Word every day!
- Pray for our LCMS missionaries. Ask the Holy spirit to bless them and their efforts.
- Pray for our LWML. Join me daily in prayer, and especially every Saturday at 9 a.m. for 9 minutes, as we “have a cup of coffee or tea” and pray together—“A Cup with Kay.”
- Pray for the success of our mission grants. Pray that those grants will point toward the Good News of salvation in Jesus Christ, as the lives of grant recipients are impacted by our gifts.
- Fill your Mite Box; as you do, pray that your gifts will help touch the lives of others through the grants for this biennium.

Did you know?
Your mites have helped the children in Ghana, Botswana, Namibia, and Nigeria to hear about Jesus’ love in their language. Our LWML Lutheran Bible Translators grant has now been paid in full - $97,344.

- Crookston, Our Savior’s Evening Guild, in memory of Ursula Dans.
- Parkers Prairie, Immanuel, in memory of Larry Bowland.
- Lydia Bode family and Keith & Mary Schirm, in memory of Lydia Bode.
- Sauk Rapids, Trinity, and Marilyn Hiltel, in memory of Renee Trushenski.
- Bertha Longhenry, in memory of John Liebelt.
- Bellingham, Walter Twp., Trinity, in memory of Vernon Longhenry.
- Loon Lake, St. Paul’s, in memory of Gordon Poss.
- Bemidji, Trinity Ladies Aid, in memory of Marilyn Sampson.

Memorial and honor gifts should be sent to:

6850 Golden Spike Road
Sauk Rapids, MN 56379-9715

Attention societies and zones
A great way to share ideas and events in our LWML societies is to submit your articles and photos for publication in The Lutheran Witness.

Send your articles and photos to: editor@lwmlmnn.org. Clearly identify all of the people in the photo, and provide any other information about the photo you think would be helpful for the reader to know.

Digital photos should be submitted in JPG or TIFF formats and attached to your email.
